MEMBER PROFILE:

Cliff Stearns

National Security: Since 9/11, the United States is committed to fighting the War on Terror and protecting Americans abroad and here at home. The President has clearly outlined a strategy that will defeat the terrorists and see freedom triumph.

Statesman Spotlight Cliff Stearns

D.C. Native. Cliff is one of the few members of Congress who was born and raised in Washington, D.C. He spent most of his childhood through college here.

Forget The DC Ducks Tour, We're Takin' The Congressional Tour.

Cliff used to march in ROTC on the Ellipse, play golf at Rock Creek Park (where he broke his arm sledding on the 9th hole), and sail with his father on the Potomac.

Alternative Transportation. Cliff used to take streetcars to George Washington University and would like to see their return to DC.

"Duck & Cover." Cliff spent one summer in the basement of the U.S. Capitol working in civil defense where he helped to plan evacuation routes in case of nuclear attack.

Yankees South Of The Mason-Dixon Line.

George Steinbrenner owns a horse farm in Ocala, Florida and Cliff is trying to convince him to build the New York Yankees Hall of Fame there. Calling Cliff a "fan" is an understatement.

NATIONAL SECURITY: Winning The War On Terror

The President's Strategy To Win The War On Terror:

- ✓ Preventing terrorist attacks before they occur.
- ✓ Denying weapons of mass destruction to outlaw regimes and their terrorist allies.
- ✓ Denying radical groups the support and sanctuary of outlaw regimes.
- ✓ Fighting to deny militants control of any nation.
- ✓ Denying future recruits to these radical groups by advancing democracy and hope across the Middle East.

Rep. Joe Wilson on IRAN

"Mr. Speaker, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, the President of Iran, continues to deny the devastation of the Holocaust and encourage the elimination of Israel. As his message of hatred and fanaticism grows louder each day, the seriousness of his nuclear ambitions has become increasingly obvious.

"Last week, the IAEA's Board of Governors, including our allies India, Canada, and Australia, voted overwhelmingly to report Iran to the U.N. Security Council. Although the Bush Administration built a case for international unity, Iran's President persists in his quest for nuclear weapons. The U.N. must act quickly and strongly to hold Iran accountable for violating the Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty.

"During the Cold War, Ronald Reagan advocated peace through strength. As the Iranian Regime continues to undermine peace and stability, leaders of free nations must work together to seriously address this grave threat. While President Ahmadinejad continues to pursue his agenda of terror, the Iranian people deserve a brighter future of economic expansion, not a war-mongering leader."
