Dear Leader Boehner and Whip Blunt,

We are writing to urge you to appoint Congressman John Linder as a representative in ongoing negotiations on the financial rescue plan.

Congressman Linder's expertise and experience in finance, tax policy, and business would be of great value. He understands well the serious concerns of many House Republicans and has advocated for a more deliberate approach to the negotiations – one which we believe will serve the American people well.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Congressman Jack Kingston
